

MAREKA HAYNES
EMERGING SPEAKER, AUTHOR, COACH
WWW.CARIBBEANSPEAKERSONLINE.COM

Established in professional marketing Mareka Haynes has reaped great strategies and successful business development hits for corporate blue chip companies in the USA, Canada and even Australia, upholding their technology brands with a cheerful readiness.

Currently, Mareka is Executive Administrator-Virtual Assistant to Caribbean Voice Radio and new co-host of Straight Talk & Motivation hosted by Aubry Padmore on Caribbean Voice Radio.

She is a graduate of Barbados Institute of Management and Productivity in Supervisory Management which aides her skills in managing staff, payroll and basic human resource tasks for any organization. Expounding on her ability to reach out to others, especially the youth, she subscribed and became a graduate of the College of International Radio Broadcasting in Barbados with distinction, hoping to solidify and build on her youth empowerment vision for the future.

Being a go-getter, she boasts her core skills and competencies as

- . Supporting the youth from adolescent to early adult stage
- . Being a mental and spiritual strength for the youth who feel neglected.
- . Creating an island community and outreach program to turn the island's youth in a positive direction.

Confidence and resilience emanates from this powerful, Caribbean single mother of two, who has a hunger for change in today's youth.

And quote: "I believe today's youth can be changed if it is explained to them how to build a foundation for life upon leaving school. It's a tough process but with endurance, it can be done!"
